

An Introduction to Kodály-Inspired Teaching: Practical Applications for the Music Educator

Presented by: Anne Mileski

Sponsored by the Spokane Area Youth Choirs

Saturday, March 3, 2018

Central Lutheran Church 512 S. Bernard St. Spokane 99204

Kodaly-Inspired teaching is an active music-making approach that fosters musical fluency and promotes life-long independent musicianship. The workshop will include hands-on activities, practical applications and a demonstration choir. Take home useful tools and resources for your music classroom or choir.

Anne Mileski is an elementary music specialist in Eastern Washington, and she also teaches Kodály pedagogy to graduate students at summer sessions and workshops across the country. She is certified in Kodály, Orff-Schulwerk, Smithsonian Folkways World Music Pedagogy, Music Learning Theory Elementary General Level I, and has completed coursework in Dalcroze Eurhythmics. Anne holds a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Michigan, and a Master of Music degree from Southern Methodist University, both in trumpet performance. She has performed with prestigious groups such as the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the Dallas Wind Symphony. In addition to her applied music studies, she holds a Master of Music degree in Music Education from SMU, and has completed coursework toward a doctorate in music education at Indiana University, Jacobs School of Music.
